Blue Hill Sponsors AFCOM in Philadelphia

Blue Hill Data Services is pleased to participate as a sponsor at the AFCOM Symposium in Philadelphia on October 15, 2015.

The AFCOM Mid Atlantic chapter will provide data center and facilities management a day of deep-dive education and valuable networking. This symposium is designed for IT data center management and staff responsible for data centers, disaster recovery, and facilities or building management.

AFCOM is the leading association for data center management professionals and has been providing education, trends analysis and peer relations building for it more than 4,000 members since 1980. This event provides unique opportunities to the people who run large scale data centers.

“We are thrilled to be participating in and supporting this AFCOM symposium in Philadelphia,” said Rosary DeFilippis, Executive Director, Business Development and Chief Marketing Officer for Blue Hill Data Services. “It gives us another opportunity to learn more about our customers’ needs in the greater Philadelphia are, especially since we have opened our new offices in Center City, Philadelphia.”
