Blue Hill Data Services Executive Director, Business Development and CMO, Rosary De Filippis, was pleased to attend The May General Membership Luncheon held on May 15, 2014 at The Nyack Seaport. RBA members from all over Rockland Country enjoyed lunch and had the chance to hear Michael DiTullo, President/CEO, Rockland Economic Development Corporation. He presented REDC's External Marketing Campaign "Address for Success", a campaign to promote Rockland County outside of its borders. The six-month external marketing campaign is made up of outreach to radio and television audiences throughout the Metro New York area, including Manhattan, northern New Jersey and Connecticut.

As the leader in the Rockland County business community, the Rockland Business Association (RBA) has developed advocacy positions that advance the business agenda. Working closely with local, state and Federal legislators enables the RBA to leverage the strength of their membership, so that they can address issues critical to the business community. Additionally, RBA is the "VOICE" of Rockland business, its leading role as the lead advocate for business, public policy and economic development.

About RBA:

The Rockland Business Association mission is to educate, inform, and provide beneficial services to members and actively represent, promote and support the business community of Rockland County. RBA is the "voice" of business in Rockland County. This Organization serves the entire Rockland County business community as well as many firms in The Hudson Valley and New Jersey wishing to do business in Rockland. With more than 1,000 member businesses, our services and benefits target the needs of various sectors of our community including the manufacturing, financial and service industries.
