Blue Hill Data Services: Two-Time Award Winner at CA World 2013

April 29, 2013

Blue Hill Data Services recently attended and was a sponsor of CA World 2013 at the Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino in Las Vegas, April 21-24th. The theme was “Go BIG. IT with Impact!” which focused on how companies need to think BIG in order to achieve success, especially in today’s fast-paced ever-changing world. Keynote speakers included CA Technologies’ new CEO Mike Gregoire, the world-famous Sir Richard Branson, who talked about his latest venture of offering space travel to individual consumers, and CA Technologies’ Executive Vice President Peter Griffiths.

“We are great enthusiasts of CA Technologies and we’re honored to receive not one, but two awards,” said John Lalli, Blue Hill’s COO and Managing Director. Also in attendance from Blue Hill were Tom Laudati, Chief Technology Officer; Rosary De Filippis, Executive Director, Business Development and CMO; Bob Miesieski, Chief Applications Officer; Mike Woods, Director Mainframe Technical Services; and Nicole Motta and Nikki Raskin, Marketing Associates.

The 2013 Customer VIP Award: Mainframe – Progress was awarded to Blue Hill for the use of CA Mainframe Software Rationalization Program to standardize software on its mainframe platforms in supporting Blue Hill customers, in areas of system monitoring, automated operations, tape and DASD management, and testing. CA Technologies’ Mainframe Progress Award recognizes implementation success and process improvements. Initiatives in this category demonstrate excellent planning and communications, and project success. Additionally, Blue Hill received the Partner of the Year First Runner-Up Award.
